Numb. 4345

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday June 30. to Thursday July 3. 1707.

Windsor, July 1.

THE humble Addreſs of the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Officers of the Militia, Gentlemen, Clergy, the Corporations of Newport, Newtown, and Yarmouth, and other Inhabitants, of Her Majeſty's Iſle of Wight: Preſented to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Bolton.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, highly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we have received under Your moſt auſpicious Reign over us, beg Leave at this time humbly to approach Your Majeſty with our hearty and ſincere Congratulation upon the happy Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland: And 'tis no ſmall Addition to the Joy we have conceived herein, that Your Majeſty has had the Glory alone of accompliſhing ſo great a Work, which many of Your Royal Predeceſſors had in vain attempted. May the beſt of Beings vouchſafe Your Majeſty the Pleaſure and Satisfaction of ſeeing Your Subjects many Years bleſſed with thoſe Advantages, and the happy Conſequences which are to be expected, and muſt undoubtedly flow from it. For which we ſhall ever pray, &c.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Maſters, and Common Council, of the City or Borough of Wells, in the County of Somerſet: Preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fitzharding.

To Her moſt Sacred Majeſty ANNE, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, Queen.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOur Majeſty having brought to effect what has been for many Years in vain attempted, and which (eſpecially at this time) ſeem'd almoſt impoſſible, the Union of the Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland; we Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects humbly beg Leave to congratulate Your Majeſty on this Solemn Occaſion.

We are all well aſſur'd nothing could move Your Majeſty to undertake a Work of ſo much Difficulty and Niceneſs, but the Welfare of Your People.

That this may fully anſwer all the good Deſigns propoſed by Your Majeſty, and that Your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous, are the hearty Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects; who, in Teſtimony thereof, and of their Loyalty and Zeal for Your Majeſty, have hereunto ſet their Common Seal, this 16*th Day of* June, in the Sixth Year of Your Majeſty's Reign.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, of the Borough of Warwick: Preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Brooks.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE humbly beg Leave, amongſt the Crowds of Your Engliſh Subjects, to congratulate Your moſt Sacred Majeſty on the Accompliſhment of the Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland into one Monarchy of Great Britain: By which thoſe Names received from Nations more barbarous, (the inglorious Marks of a Conquered People) are aboliſhed, and the Iſland reſtored to its Primitive Name, and more than Primitive State of Greatneſs.

By this happy Coalition the Strength and Power of Your People are encreaſed, though the Number of Your Titles is diminiſhed; Your Majeſty delighting more in giving to Your Kingdom, than taking to Your Self, what is upon all Accounts Your Due, the Title of Great.

That a continued Train of Succeſſes may crown Your Councils at home, and Your Arms and thoſe of Your faithful Allies abroad; and every Interruption and Check ſerve but to make Your Glory break forth with the greater Luſtre:

That Your Northern Subjects may be diſtinguiſhed from Your others by the Climate only they live under; and as they ſhare equally, at leaſt, in the benign Influences of Your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government, and Accompliſhment of this happy Union; ſo they may join with us in equally grateful Acknowledgments to Your Majeſty, of being become an united People; and that Britain, divided from the reſt of the World, may never more be ſo within it ſelf; are the Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and obedient Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, this 11*th Day of* June, in the Sixth Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, Anno Dom. 1707.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, and Commonalty, of the ancient Borough and Corporation of Thetford, in the Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk: Preſented to Her Majeſty by Robert Baylis Eſq; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Grafton.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

AS the Years revolve, ſo return the Reaſons of our Congratulations and Thanks. We laſt Year celebrated the Greatneſs of Your Victories and Atchievements abroad; and now beg Leave humbly to repreſent our Senſe of thoſe gentler Methods, by which You conduct the Affairs of Your People at home, with ſo much Equity, Providence, and Succeſs: And, by an eminent Inſtance of all theſe, have now United the Two famous Diviſions of Great Britain; manifeſting to the World, That You intend to entail upon them but this one Diſpute, Whether You have made more Conqueſts by the Force and Terror of Your Arms, or by the Tenderneſs and Charms viſible in Your Government?

To make the Inhabitants of one Iſland become one People, is to tranſcribe from Nature: To remove the Cauſe of Domeſtick Wars, and totally ſtop up that Fountain of Blood which ſo oft hath overflowed it, is not only to make one Generation ſafe, but to lay Obligations upon the unborn: To add Two Nations as it were reciprocally each to other, is to encreaſe the Strength of both: And then, to reſume a Work that ſeem'd to have been abandon'd as deſperate by Your Predeceſſors; to overcome the Difficulties naturally attending a Thing ſo nice; to ſtem the Oppoſition which ſome Men made to their own Felicity; and, laſtly, to contract the Labour of an Age into a few Months; is almoſt to prevent our Wiſhes, and to unite Kingdoms with more Eaſe than others divide them.

Madam, May all Your Subjects be ſenſible, as we are, of the great Advantages they receive by Your Majeſty's extraordinary Management and Care for them. As theſe two Nations are now made into one Body, ſo may they be animated with one Soul: And may Heaven crown their united Efforts with ſuch future Victories, as may effectually ſecure the Glory of Your former Triumphs, the Peace of this Iſland, and the Liberties of all Your faithful Confederates.

Given under the Common Seal of the Corporation, the 19*th Day of* June, Anno Domini 1707.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty, of Her Majeſty's ancient Borough of Wallingford, in the County of Berks: Preſented to Her Majeſty by William Jennens Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

TO vouchſafe the Acceptance of our ſincere Acknowledgment for the conſtant and tender Care You have been pleaſed to ſhew for the Peace and Welfare of us, and all the People committed to Your Charge; and particularly for Your late continued Application in perfecting the Union between the Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland; which we fervently pray may anſwer thoſe bleſſed and deſirable Ends Your Majeſty deſigns, in the Eſtabliſhment of our Religion, in the Settlement of the Succeſſion, and in the Encreaſe of the Strength and Wealth of the whole Iſland: Towards the effectual promoting of which, we humbly crave Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, we ſhall on all Occaſions chearfully contribute whatever ſhall lie in our Power; and being firmly and unalterably united in all Duty and Allegiance to Your Sacred Perſon and Government, ſhall be ready likewiſe friendly and affectionately to unite with thoſe who are ſo happy as to become our Fellow Subjects, under ſo gracious and ſo glorious a Sovereign. Dated under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough the 12*th Day of* June, in the Sixth Year of Your Majeſty's Reign over Great Britain, France and Ireland, Annoq; Dom. 1707.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Naples, June 7. N. S. The Terror and Diſtraction of this City encreaſe in Proportion to the Advances which the Imperialiſts make in their March towards it. All Perſons inclin'd to the Intereſts of the Houſe of Auſtria are obſerv'd by the Viceroy with greater Circumſpection than before; but the moſt reſerved amongſt them diſcover a Satisfaction not to be diſguis'd. That Party gains every Day new Adherents; and the ſuſpected Perſons who are confined on that Account undergo it with ſuch Chearfulneſs, that they ſeem to look upon it only as a Recommendation to their Friends who are coming to their Relief. Men of the firſt Rank daily take Occaſion to withdraw from hence, either to expect the Event of the Imperial Expedition, or watch a favourable Opportunity of adding their Perſons and Dependencies to ſtrengthen it. It is ſaid there is a dangerous Conſpiracy diſcovered againſt the Government; but the Leaders of it are of ſo great Power, that the Viceroy chooſes to diſſemble his Knowledge of Crimes which he is not in a Condition to puniſh. However he has added, upon ſome extraordinary Notices, 2000 Men to the uſual Guard of the City, who divide themſelves into Detachments, and keep in Motion Day and Night, to awe the Inhabitants from riſing; with Orders, upon the leaſt Diſturbance, to proceed to the laſt Extremity. His Excellency ſends frequent Diſpatches to Toulon, for the Succours which he has long been promiſed. The Impriſonment of the Baron Picolomini, and a Gentleman of the Houſe of Gervatio, creates a Variety of Speculations; the Friends of King Philip fearing very ill Conſequences from the Popularity and Power of thoſe Fami-
